
Hello to you ALL!

Posted by ranwilli - 2007/11/10 10:58

I met Paul on the forum at Joomla.org, and was impressed by his attitude and his willingness to help others with their websites. He engaged me in some very enlightening chats, and I decided to get involved here, because like so many I know, I would like to build my business on-line.

So here's to Paul and Opportunity Dock! Live long and PROSPER!
